To Parents of Reception children

Dear Parents,

We have always considered our relationship with parents to be of paramount importance as we recognise that children achieve more when school and parents work together. At Richard Taylor we have been very fortunate in the variety of support we have received from all parents and we know that your children have benefited as a result of this approach.

All schools had to adopt a written home-school agreement and associated parental declaration. This agreement is the responsibility of the governing body and it has to cover certain aspects of school life. It has to be signed by the headteacher, the parents and the child. Attached to this letter is a copy of our home-school agreement. We would like to ask you and your child to sign the agreement and return it to school. We appreciate that reception children will need help with signing their name and we are not concerned about the standard of the writing. If your child is unable to sign their name please encourage them to record their agreement in an appropriate manner.

If you have any problems with this agreement please don't hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Symonds
